

Worlds of Journalism

Professional Identity, Influences, and Change

International Conference, 5-8 September 2015
Center for Advanced Studies at LMU Munich
Seestraße 13, 80802 Munich

Convener: Prof. Dr. Thomas Hanitzsch (Senior Researcher in Residence)

PROGRAM

September 5th

18:00 Get together CAS, Foyer

September 6th

09:00-10:30 WJS Business Meeting Conference Room
10:30-11:00 Coffee Break Foyer
11:00-12:30 WJS Business Meeting contd. Conference Room
12:30-13:30 Lunch Foyer
13:30-15:00 Team workshops: A "Professional Identities"
B "Professional Ethics" Conference Room
Lecture Room
15:00-15:30 Coffee Break Foyer
15:30-17:00 Team workshops: A "Perceived Influences"
B "Professional Autonomy" Conference Room
Lecture Room
19:00 Dinner Osterwaldgarten

September 7th

09:00-10:30 Team workshops: A "Journalists and the Newsroom"
B "Journalistic Trust" Conference Room
Lecture Room
10:30-11:00 Coffee Break Foyer
11:00-12:30 Team workshops: A "Transformation of Journalism"
B "Conceptual Framework" Conference Room
Lecture Room
12:30-13:30 Lunch Foyer
13:30-15:30 Plenary I: Presentations from Team Workshops Conference Room
15:30-16:00 Coffee Break Foyer
16:00-17:30 Plenary II: Future Plans Conference Room
17:30-19:00 Meeting of Executive Committee Lecture Room

September 8th

– Open sessions
(See following page)

September 8th – Open sessions

09:00-10:30 Comparative Treatments Conference Room
Chair: THOMAS HANITZSCH, LMU Munich

- Being a journalist in a post-authoritarian society: Perceptions of press freedom in the Czech Republic and South Africa
ARNOLD S DE BEER (Stellenbosch University), ALICE NĚMCOVÁ TEJKALOVÁ, Wadim Strielkowski, FILIP LAB (Charles University) & SEAN BECKETT (Institute for Media Analysis in South Africa)
- Journalistic autonomy under threat: comparative perceptions of professional and occupational risks in Colombia and Mexico
JESÚS ARROYAVE (Universidad del Norte) & MIREYA MÁRQUEZ RAMÍREZ (Universidad Iberoamericana)
- The language as a supranational denominator? French speaking journalists across Europe: A comparison of the professional groups and cultures between Switzerland, Belgium and France
OLIVIER STANDAERT (Université catholique de Louvain), VITTORIA SACCO, ANNIK DUBIED (University of Neuchâtel) & NATHALIE PIGNARD-CHEYNEL (Université de Lorraine)
- Trends of journalism and journalists in populist governments in Latin America: the examples of Argentina and Ecuador
ADRIANA AMADO (National University of Matanza) & MARTIN OLLER ALONSO (Universidad de las Américas)

10:30-10:45 Coffee Break Foyer

10:45-12:15 Journalism in the West Conference Room
Chair: JYOTIKA RAMAPRASAD, University of Miami

- Healthy skeptics or disillusioned democrats? Political trust among Danish journalists
ARJEN VAN DALEN (University of Southern Denmark)
- The development of Spanish journalists' trust in political institutions and the challenge of comparability in measuring trust
ROSA BERGANZA & BEATRIZ HERRERO (Universidad Rey Juan Carlos)
- Giving them what they want to know, or what they should know: A comparison of Australian journalists' citizen and consumer orientations
FOLKER HANUSCH (Queensland University of Technology)
- Worlds of Journalism: first results from Cyprus
DIMITRA MILIONI (Cyprus University of Technology)

12:15-13:15 Lunch Foyer

13:15-14:45 Journalism in Transition Conference Room
Chair: EPP LAUK, University of Jyväskylä

- Transformation of Czech journalists' working conditions
ALICE TEJKALOVÁ (Charles University in Prague)
- WJS in Kosovo: A Case of Transitional Journalism
KENNETH ANDRESEN (University of Agder)
- Serbian journalists and the idea of common good
VERICA RUPAR (Auckland University of Technology) & SONJA SEIZOVA (University of Belgrade)
- Journalists and PR in Albania - An ambiguous relationship
JONILA GODOLE (University of Tirana)
- A profession in crisis in a country in crisis: The Greek case of the Worlds of Journalism Study
DIMITRA DIMITRAKOPOULOU (Aristotle University of Thessaloniki)

14:45-15:00 Coffee Break Foyer

15:00-16:30 Journalism in the Global South Conference Room
Chair: FOLKER HANUSCH, Queensland University of Technology

- Influences on Botswanian Journalism: Differences by Ownership
JYOTIKA RAMAPRASAD (University of Miami)
- Salvadoran journalism: in the midst of social violence and political polarization
JOSÉ LUIS BENÍTEZ (Universidad Centroamericana José Simeón Cañas)
- Conceptual and methodological challenges of studying media freedom in Qatar
ASHRAF GALAL (Qatar University)
- Multilevel analysis on new journalistic cultures around the world: the proposal of an Organic Multilevel Model
MARTIN OLLER ALONSO (Universidad de las Américas)

